

Creation of a subband open to General Class and higher amateur license holders would facilitate emergency communications. A band in the area 5 MHz. would be usable 24 hours a day. Currently two frequencies are required to provide 24 hour a day emergency communications. Sub band allocations could be given for only to emergency communication incidents and exercises and nets including digital modes.